NO DECISION IN PERSICO SUIT

Justice of Peace John Roth yesterday took under advisement the suit of Jules Toussaint Sr., father of Jules Toussaint, Jr., against Leo Persico, a local real estate man. Toussaint brought suit against Persico for $299.00 claiming that his son had been attacked by the latter resulting in the loss of several perfectly good molars. The suit asks $2.5 for "injured feelings" and $44 for medical attention.

Some time ago young Toussaint attempted to collect a bill from Persico. An argument followed and Persico claims that the boy used some very uncomplimentary epitaphs in describing his impression of Persico. The latter, is is said, ejected Toussaint from his place of business.

Persico was latter arrested on a warrant for battery and Police Judge William Lindsey fined him $40 one of the largest fines meted out in this city for an offense of this kind.

Mrs. H. Ecker was the principal witness. She testified that she had seen Persico strike the boy after he had fallen to the ground. This Persico denies. Assistant District Attorney Wilbus S. Pierce and Attorney Robinson represented Persico and Attorney William H. Huber of Stege, the plaintiff.

CITY NEEDS WATER PRESSURE

The recent water pressure test of the fire department has proven conclusively that Richmond needs water for fire protection. As conditions stand, Richmond boasts an up-to-date fire company but the department is left without the important necessity of fighting a conflagration, i. e., water pressure.

Fortunately Richmond has had no serious conflagrations. But this does not signify that this city will not sooner or later be threatened by flames. Should this occur, and we sincerely hope that it does not, the fire department would be helpless. At present the department can only depend upon its chemicals but these are limited and the strong pressure vital to combat a large fire lacking as it is would leave the city unprotected.

DANGER IN SUN BATHS

The Journal of American Medical Association again calls attention to the dangerous influence of prolonged exposure of the body to the bright sunlight in those who have not been accustomed to its rays. Grawitz called attention to this danger some years ago. Romer says that lying on the sand for hours in the sun has become such a popular pastime that at a single one of the Hamburg resorts there are 18,000 taking the sun bath one Sunday. The damage is more than the sunburn resulting, as he shows by two cases reported in detail, in which headache and symptoms of meningitis developed after the youths had been lying several hours in the sunlight with unprotected head and no clotheing but bathing suits. Spinal puncture confirmed the asshmption of meningitis and relieved the headache. The sun's rays had evidently penetrated the skull, he says, thus demonstrating that sunstroke is the consequence of direct exposure to the sun. Grawitz warned that those inclined to be nervous were particularly predisposed to injury of the nervous system from this cause, and Romer adds that it is the anemic and nervously predisposed city indoor workers with whom these sun baths are most popular. A tanned and vascular skin is said to protect better against injury from the sun's rays but the city dweller's skin is neither pigmented nor vascular. Instead of being benefited, the nervous are rendered more nervous, and when the summer is over they are tanned, but otherwise in poorer condition than in the spring. No one welcomes more than the physician the back to nature tendency of recent years, but it is his task to warn against excesses and abuses in the enjoyment of nature. Even Rillier, the most expert and most successful adherent of heliotherapy, manages the exposures to the sunlight with extreme care, exposing only slowly and gradually larger and larger areas of the body to the sunshine. Dorno relates that at Davos the direct sunlight is avoided almost as something inimical. Romer remarks that the physician will only in rare instances be able to influence this popular sun bath sport, but he can at least raise a voice of warning of the dangers of sun baths, and urge the necessity for proper dosage, some persons being more sensitive to the sun's rays than others.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE RICHMOND

A singing goose that has been a wonderful box office magnat all over the continent comes to the Richmond theater Sunday heading the list of attractions in a vaudeville offering deluxe. The goose is with theThaten Duo who offer a Holland scene which is rich in electrical and stage effects and featured by singing of classical songs, Holland folf dancing and some charming effects.

Barnes and Stock, "The Bootblack and the Lady" who were here several months ago in a singing and talking comedy number will be back for applause with new numbers. The Three Clares in musical novelties and Joe Bennett from the Sullivan-Considine circuit in new negro folks and new dances and fun is another winner.

Some very good pictures help to make this bill one of the best ever offered to a Sunday audience in this city.

OF INTEREST TO MUSIC LOVERS

By Miss E. M. LaSelle)
TONE PRODUCTION

There are quantities of wonderful natural voices but these naturally untrained voices soon break or fail if they are used much unless the singer supplments the natural God given vocal gifts with a conscious understanding of how a vocal apparatus should be used.

The lungs and diaphragm and the whole breathing apparatus must be understood. A singer must rely upon his breath as he relies upon the solidity of the ground beneath his feet Nothing can be built upon a rickety foundation and until that foundation has been developed and strengthened the singer must not expect any satisfactory results.

Like every thing else in singing one must learn deep breathing gradually then never neglect it because it is the very foundation of the art.

Referring to the tongue it has proven to be a stumbling block in the path of the singer and in many instances it requires a great deal of practice to gain control of it that its roots may not block the throat passage by passing against the larnyx and causing the pinched singing we so often hear. Throaty or pinched tones are tones which are trying to force themselves through a half closed throat due to the tongue being ocefrd down and back to hard upon the palate.

The jaw also, must be relaxed and mouth must remain in the same natural position always. Always these things and many others must be considered before learning to sing correctly but all come easily when the deep breathing and breath control has been mastered.

Studying singing promotes health and erbates and stimulates a love for the beautiful.

It makes life Purposeful.

The other day at our premium parlor a woman remarked that she saw no reason why folks saved other than American Trading Stamps.

Which is quite true indeed when you compare the premiums you receive with one book of 500 American Stamps and the premiums you receive with other profit-sharing plans.

Better start to save an American Book today.

The merchants who display the Red-White and Blue signs saying "We give American Trading Stamps" are the ones you should patronize—not because of the sign but because merchants giving American Stamps have the Best interests of their customers at heart.

You can depend on them.

Some women who would never listen to the idea of "saving trading-stamps" are now most enthusiastic about American Trading Stamps. It is because a stamp has at last come to Richmond that realizes the value of giving something back—American Stamps give you more than any other profit plan in existance.

Start to save a book today—only 500 stamps to fill one.

HAPPENINGS IN THE SPORTING WORLD : :

SCHINKLE HEEDS ADVICE OF CUNNINGHAM; WILL GO INTO GAME ON THE MOUND TODAY

Mr. Schinkle has been selected by Mr. Luce to chastise M. Murphy's beadsteaders from Crockett this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock at Mr. Luce's Baseball park at First street and Macdonald avenue. Schinkle has been training out Winehaven way and has added a number on new caresses to his assortment. Schinkle usually got into condition in Richmond, but Cutey Cunningham declared that the invigorating atmosphere conditions at Wilson's resort would put all kinds of pep in the old soup bone.

Now Schinkle is a fairy sweet young pitcher and if Mr. Cunningham's advice is correct, Slats and his farmer supports will go home a sadder but wiser outfit.

Crockett has much to gain in today's combat while the Elks also have considerable at stake. There is hardly a possibility of the visiting aggregation to ease the skids under the local heroes but in these days the unexpected generally occurs.

James Connick, the handsome short fielder of the Crockett contigent in an interview last night stated that his team mates and himself were going to stop the Defeat Sign on the Elks. However, James who during his spare time is interested in the chicken industry, is noted for his facetious remarks.

Howard French, Richmond's famous benedict, announced last night that Richmond was a cinch to win. We need this game, said Mr. French, and there isn't the slightest doubt that we will get it.

Herman Tuller, the famous Handsome Fan, was also confident that the Elks would gallop home with the fat end of the score.

The fans will be out strong today as it is probable that next Sunday, the game deciding the championship will be played with Sebastopol.

BOXFIGHTERS TO MAKE DEBUT IN SMALL HAMLET

Boxing will make its debut in Martinez next Friday evening when the Martinez Athletic club will give its first performance. A very likely looking card has been prepared for the event and from news received from the farm town, quite a gang will witness the festivities Six bouts have been prepared for the performance. Ray Dixon and Kid Smiley will officiate in the main event. The other bout will be as follows: Tony Melrose vs. Jimmy West; Young Beeson vs. Young Billy Papke; Frank Brazil vs. Ivy Johnson and Cyclone Johnny Condy vs. Joe Gorham.

Jimmy Silva of this city will referee.

PT. ATHLETES PLAY TODAY.

The Point Athletes and Money Back Smiths of Oakland will cross bats this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Lang's park on the west side. A lively setto is promised. Favell and McCormick will officiate as battery for the local boys.

PETALUMA VS. SAN JOSE.

Petaluma and San Jose will hook up today. This San Jose management must be a demon for punishment must be a demon for punishto grab 15 cents a player profit on the eats. "A unpleasant remembrance, eh Healey, old kid?"

CHEEKS PREPARE FOR BATTLE

Cheek's Cubs and Grant Bros. of San Francisco will participate in a baseball fracas at the Cheek grounds Tenth and Lucas this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Bradley and Motoza will be the battery for the locals.

GIBBONS WINS

Mike Gibbons of St. Paul won the popular verdict over Packey McFarland of Chicago at New Cork last night in a ten round bout. McFarland received $17,500 for his end of the purse and Gibbons $15,000.

SAY THAT YOU SAW IT IN THE DAILY NEWS

There are several things Denny J. Healey would enjoy. First he would like to get a cornor on the jitney crop and second he would like to see the writer of this and above paragraphsh and handled a la Leo Frank.

A Certain Mr. Rogers of our fair city is preparing an instructive booklet on "How It Feels In a Dress Suit" or "Gee what a barten der must suffer."

Martinez is due to get its regular trimming at the hands of the Elks in a few weeks.
